

Side Disc Cultivator ALEK

ALEK is adapted to attached on the front and on the rear of the tractor. It is used for back-filling the channel created under-planting trees, back-filling ridges formed during other agricultural works and back-filling plant bases to protect roots from frost.

- The Disc cultivator machine is used for making row ridgers and opening canal too
- The machine has a mechanically adjustable angle for the cultivator discs (left, right, up and down).
- The disc can be spaced, and angled, according to customer needs.
- Disc cultivator easy to operate with a hydraulic cylinder to adjust the width.
- The cultivator module can be in 1 or 2 discs
- The machine is produced with single and double-sided

Technical Specification

Mounting method (Rear & Front)	3-point Linkage CAT 2
Min Width	1700 mm
Max Width (cm)	2100 mm
No Of Disc Cultivator	1 or 2
Shipment Length	700 mm
Working Speed	Up to 10 km/h
Working/Shipment Height	1040 mm
Diameter of the disc	425 mm
Shipment width	1700 mm
Weight	190 kg